

WORD POWER MADE EASY NORMAL LEWIS

Sessions
19 – 23

HOW TO TALK ABOUT ACTIONS

Let us learn how to communicate our understanding of actions, reactions, attitudes and emotions more accurately and expressively

Disparaging

Equivocating

Titillate

Adulate

Proscribing

Obviate

Militate

Maligning

Condone

Placate

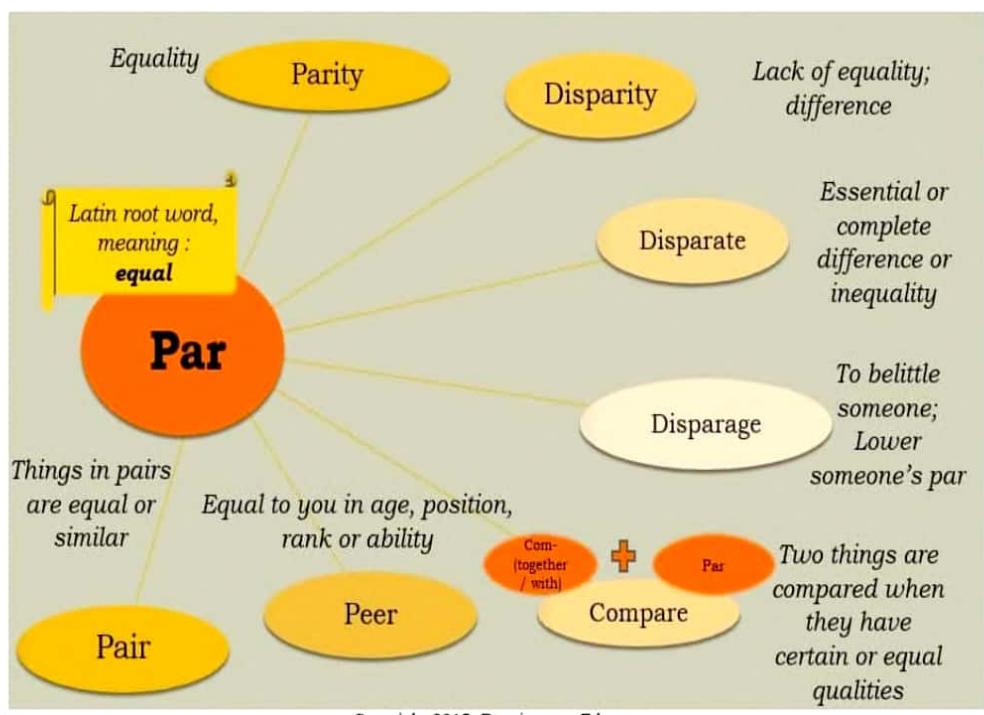

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Disparaging

- To describe someone or something as unimportant
- To lower in rank or reputation

ORIGIN AND RELATED WORDS

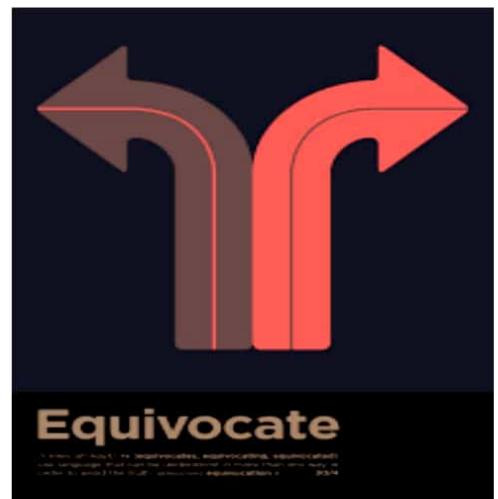

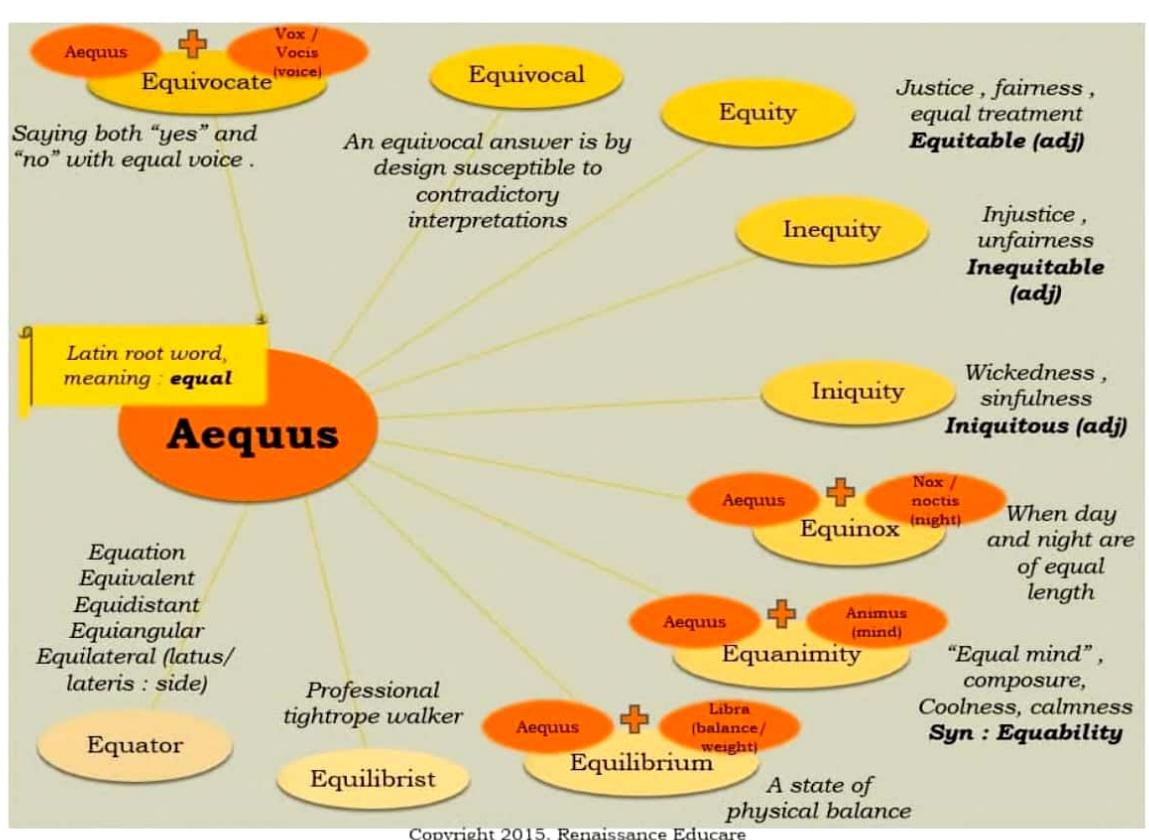

Equivocating

To use unclear language especially to deceive or mislead someone

Equivocating

To use unclear language especially to deceive or mislead someone

Copyright 2015 Renaissance Education

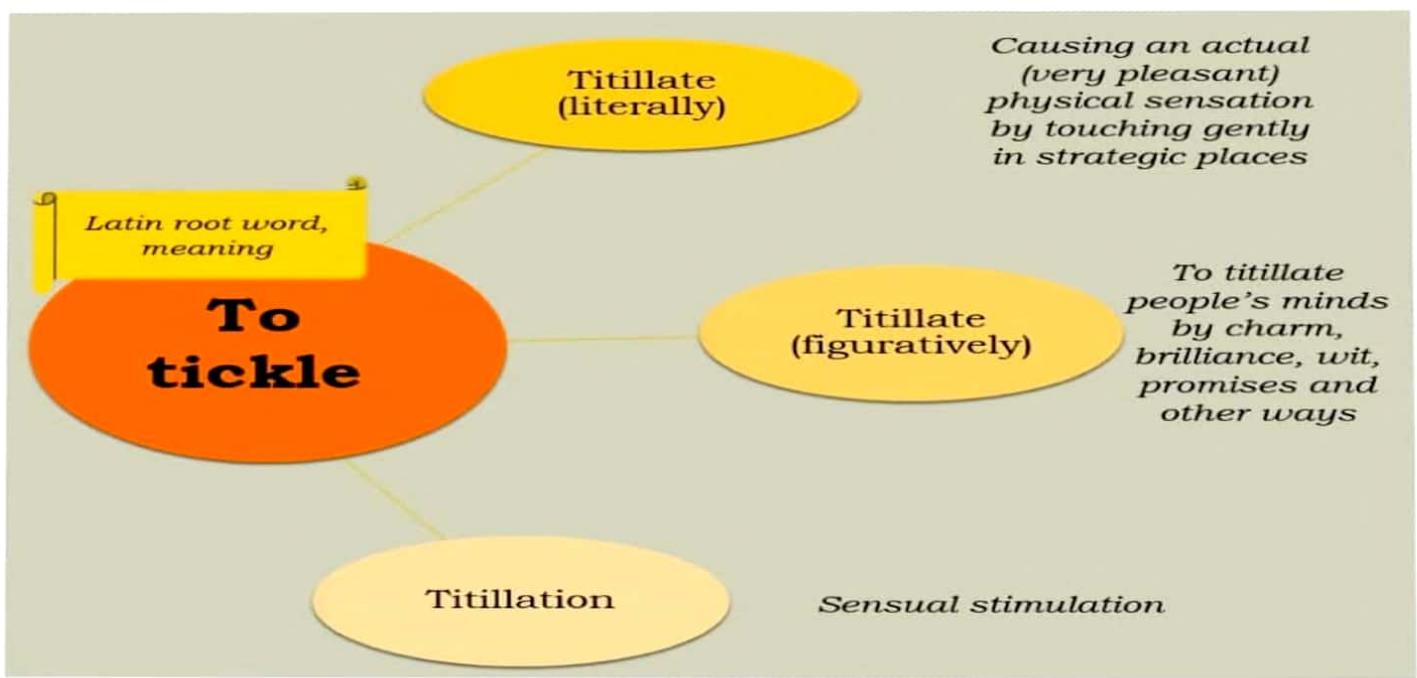

Titillate

To excite enjoyably (mental or physical), but not too sharply

Titillate

- To excite enjoyably (mental or physical, but not too sharply)
- To tickle

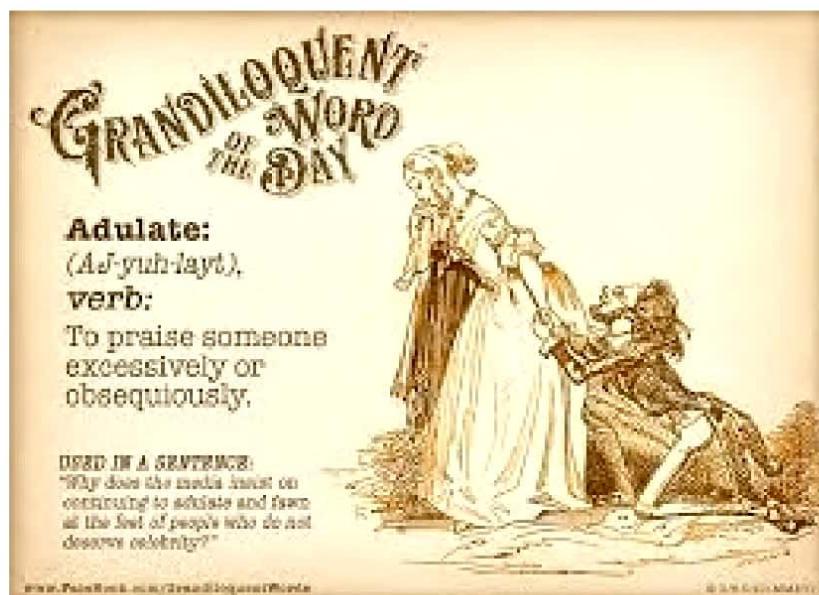

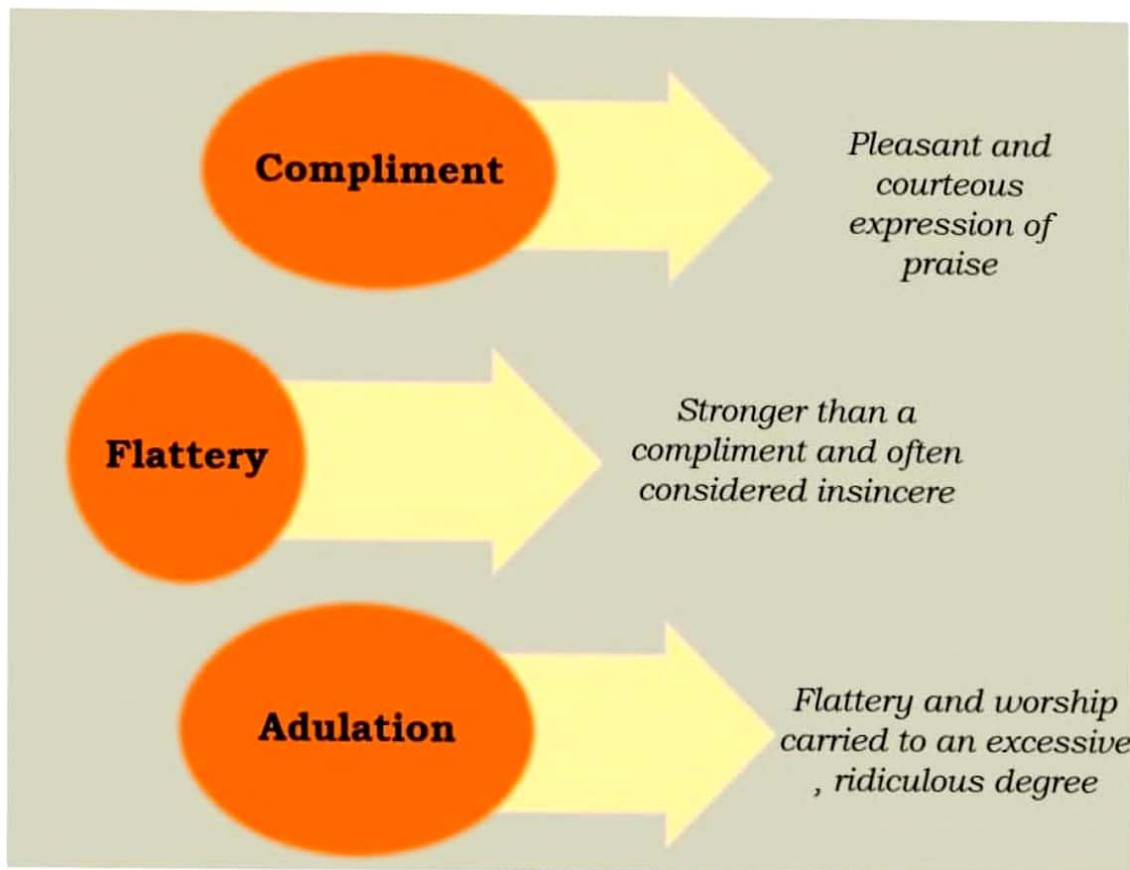

Adulate

To flatter lavishly, excessively

Adulate

To flatter lavishly, excessively

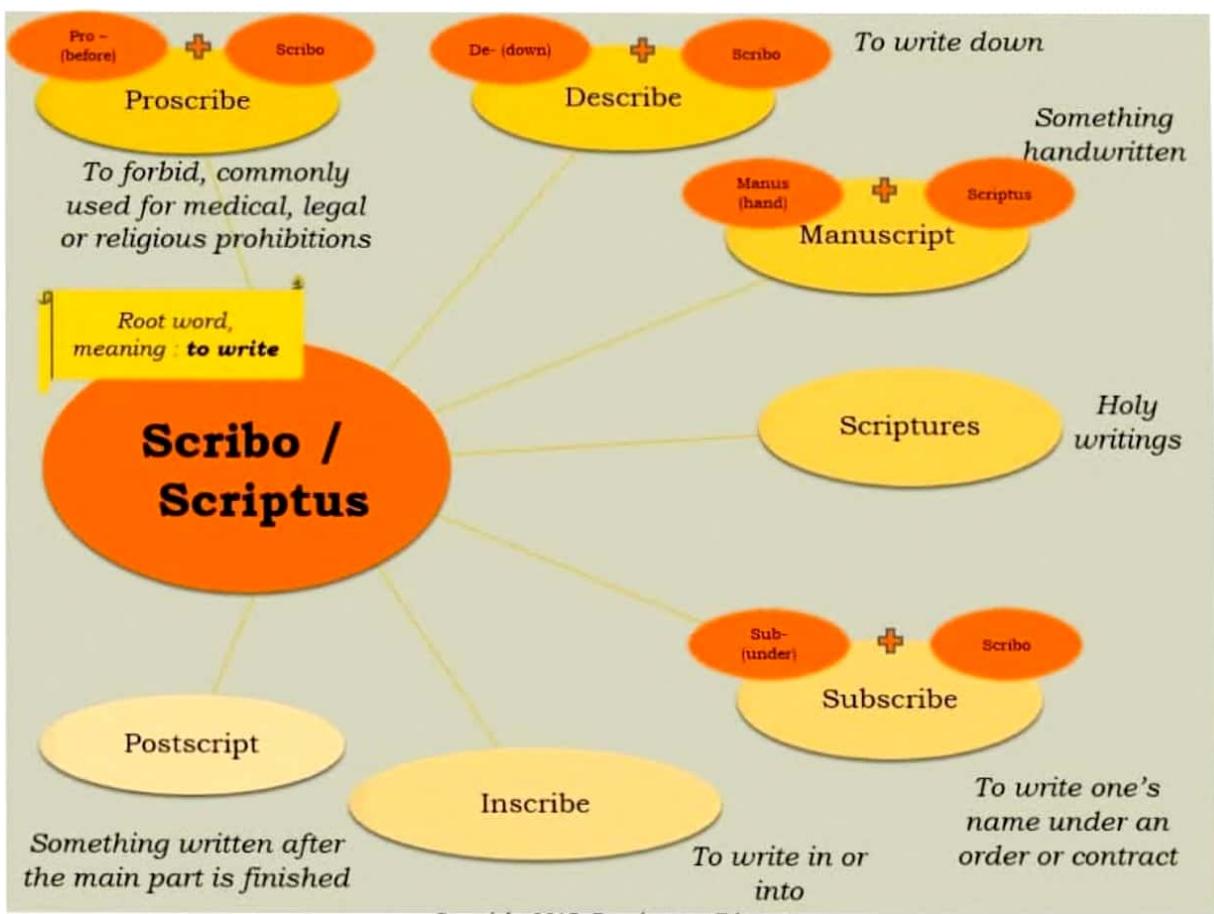

Proscribing

To not allow something , to make (something) illegal

Proscribing

To not allow something, to make (something) illegal

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Obviate

To make (something) no longer necessary : To prevent or avoid (something)

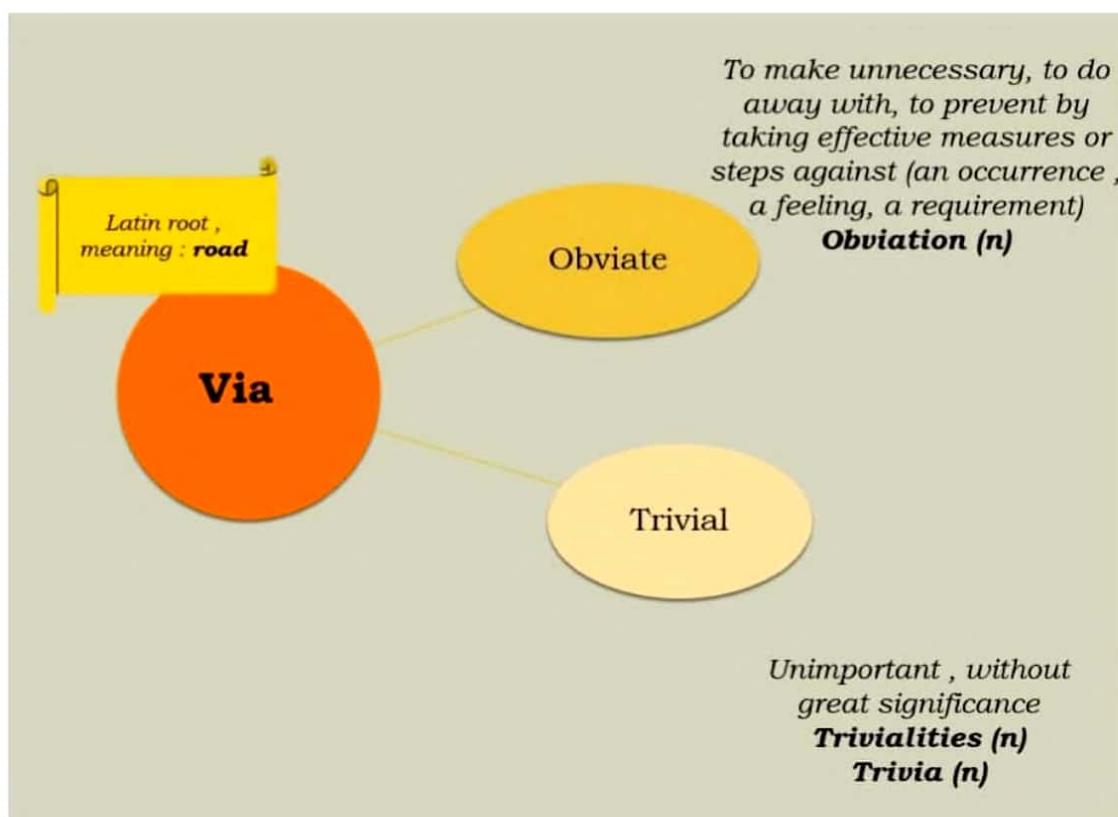

Obviate

- To make something no longer necessary
- To prevent or avoid something

Obviate Corona infection by wearing a mask shutterstock.com • 1687213390

Militate

To work against

Militate

- To work against

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

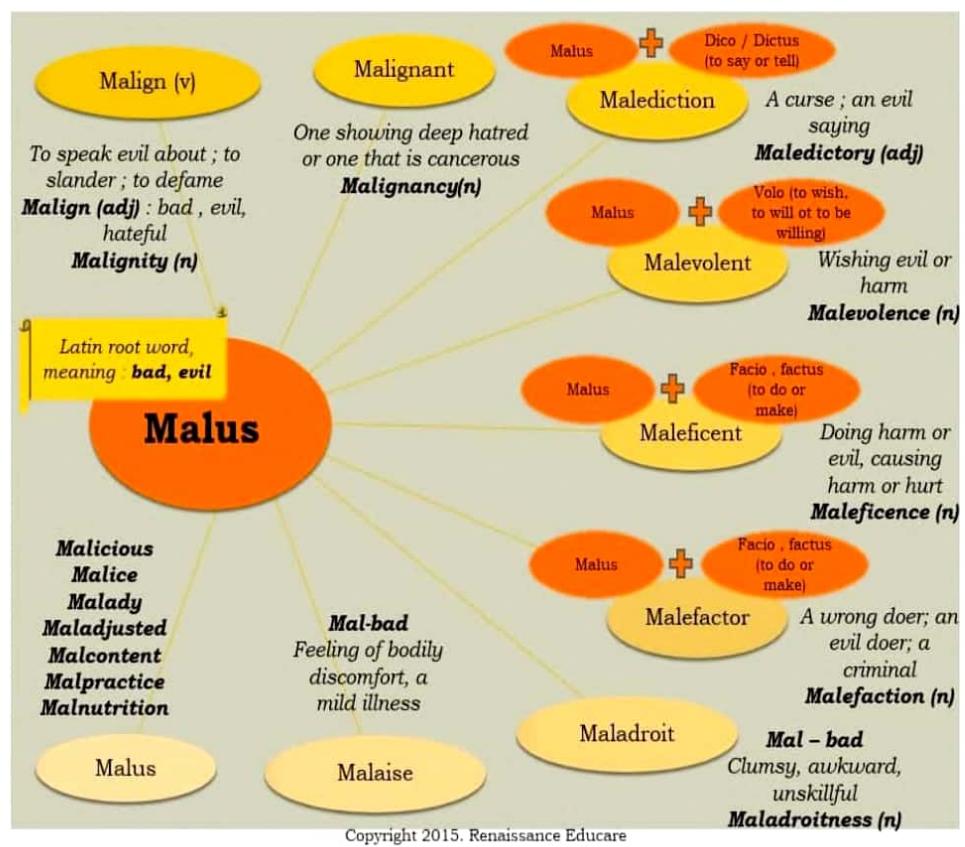

Maligning

To cause harm, to slander , defame

Malign

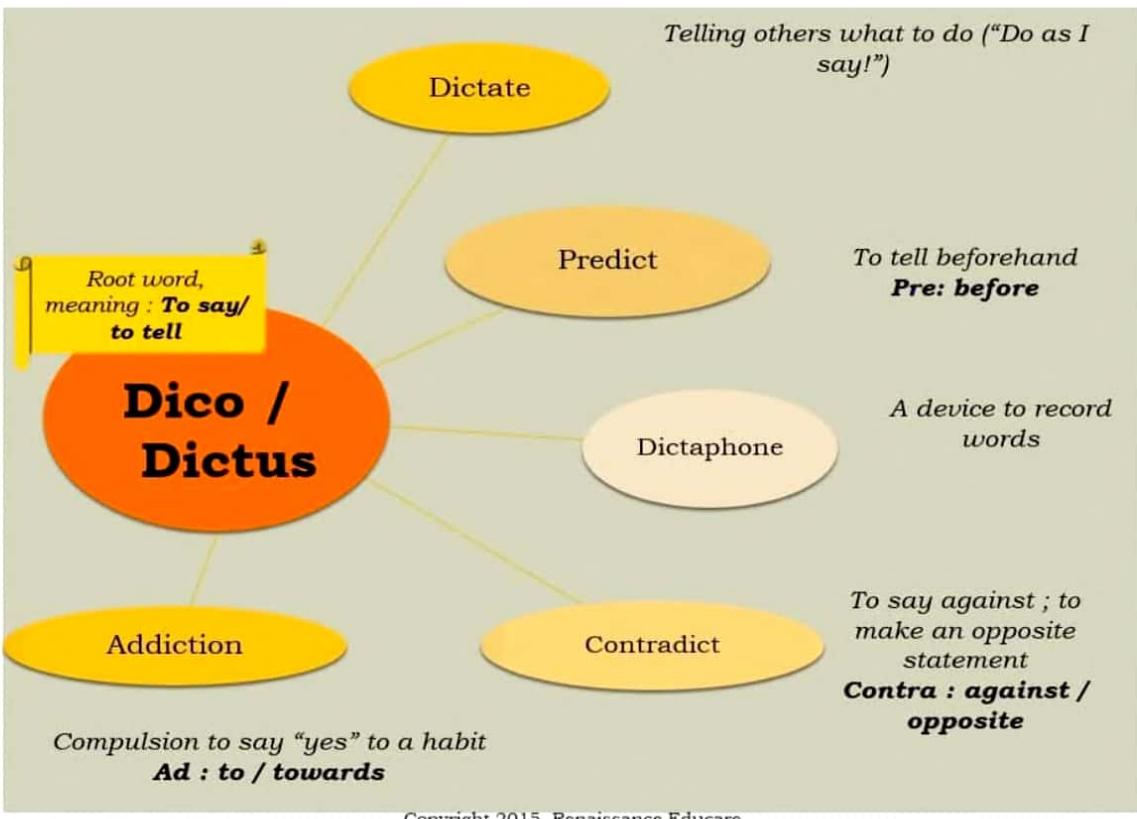

- To cause harm, to slander, defame

Latin root , meaning : to wish / to will

Volo

Expressing willingness Involuntary ; volunteer

Voluntary

Volition

The act or power of willing or wishing

Condone

To forgive or approve (something that is considered wrong) ;
to allow to continue

ucare

Condone

- To forgive or approve (something that is considered wrong)

"I fully support your goals, but I can't condone your methods."

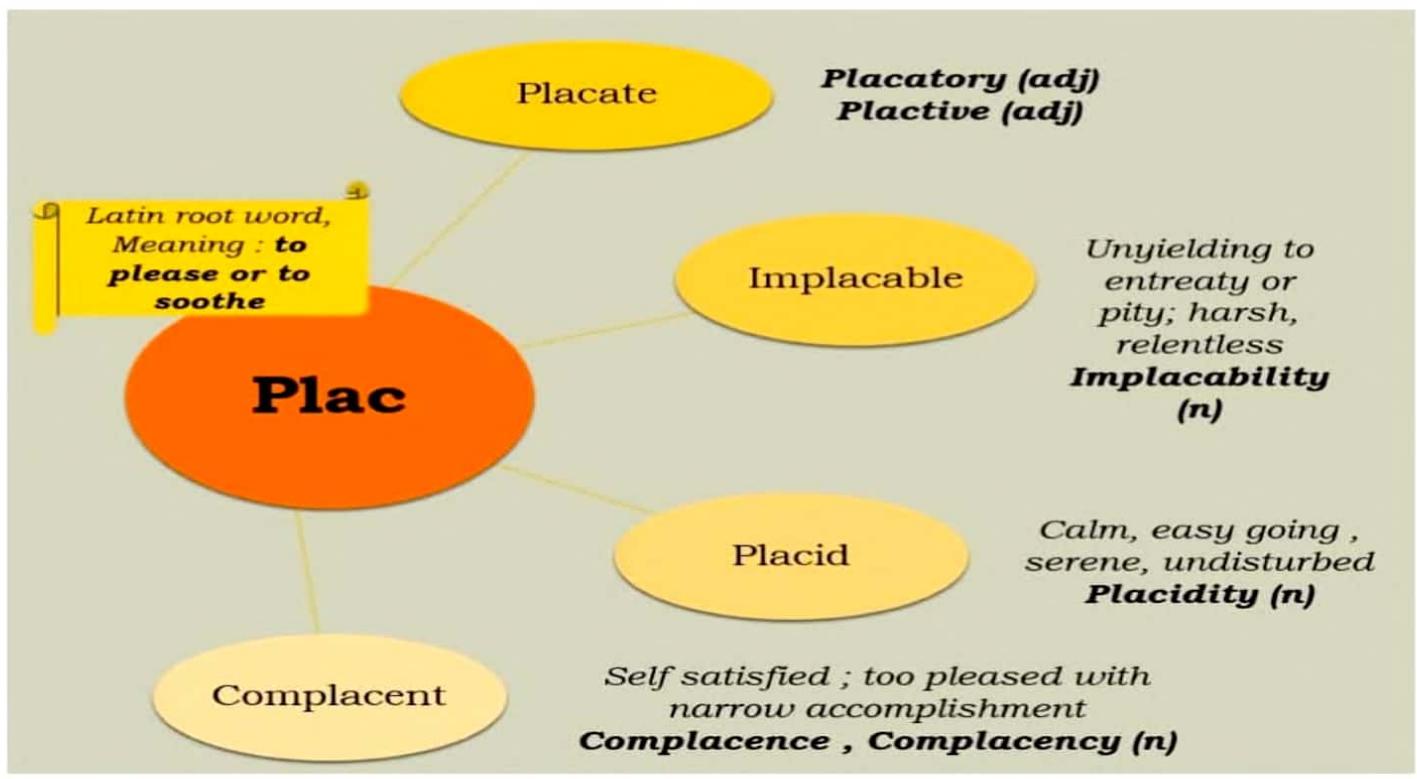

Placate

To cause (someone) to feel less angry about something

Placate

- To cause someone to feel less angry about something

Copyright 2015 Renaissance Educare

HOW TO TALK ABOUT ACTIONS

Let us learn how to communicate our understanding of actions, reactions, attitudes and emotions more accurately and expressively

Disparaging

Equivocating

Titillate

Adulate

Proscribing

Obviate

Militate

Maligning

Condone

Placate

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

TYPES OF PEOPLE YOU MIGHT FIND YOURSELF IN CONVERSATION WITH

Let us examine 10 such types (one of which by chance be your very own)

Taciturn

Laconic

Inarticulate

Garrulous

Banal

Verbose

Volatile

Cogent

Vociferous

Loquacious

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Taciturn

Unwilling to engage in conversation

Taciturn

- Unwilling to engage in conversation

ORIGIN AND RELATED WORDS

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

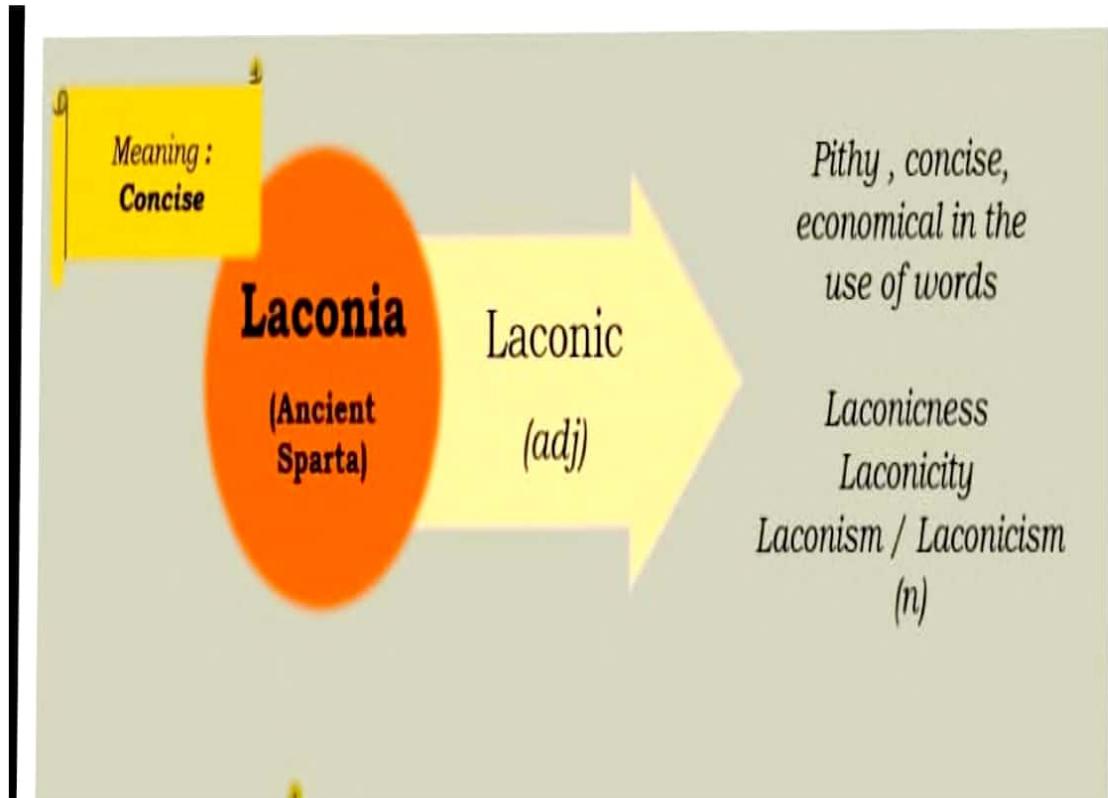

Laconic

Saying little, but meaning much.

Laconic

- Saying little but meaning much

Inarticulate

When the words won't come.
spluttering, incoherent.

Inarticulate

When words don't come; spluttering; unable to communicate

Garrulous

Talk much, but make little sense.

Garrulous

- Talk too much but make little sense

Latin root word meaning : to chatter

Garrio

Garrulous
(adj)

To speak too much unnecessarily, chatter
like a monkey.
Garrulity (n)

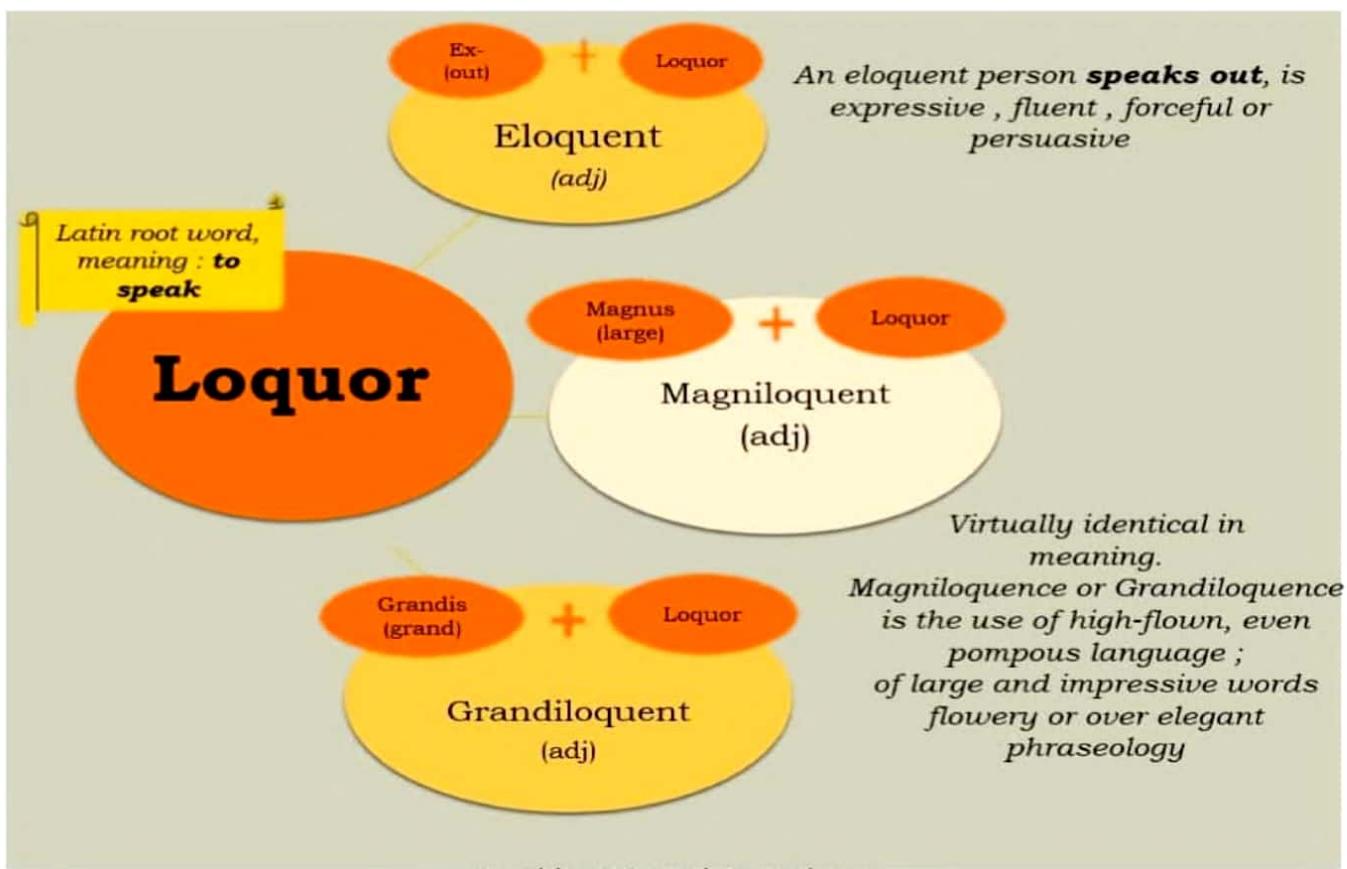

Loquacious

Talks a great deal.

Loquacious

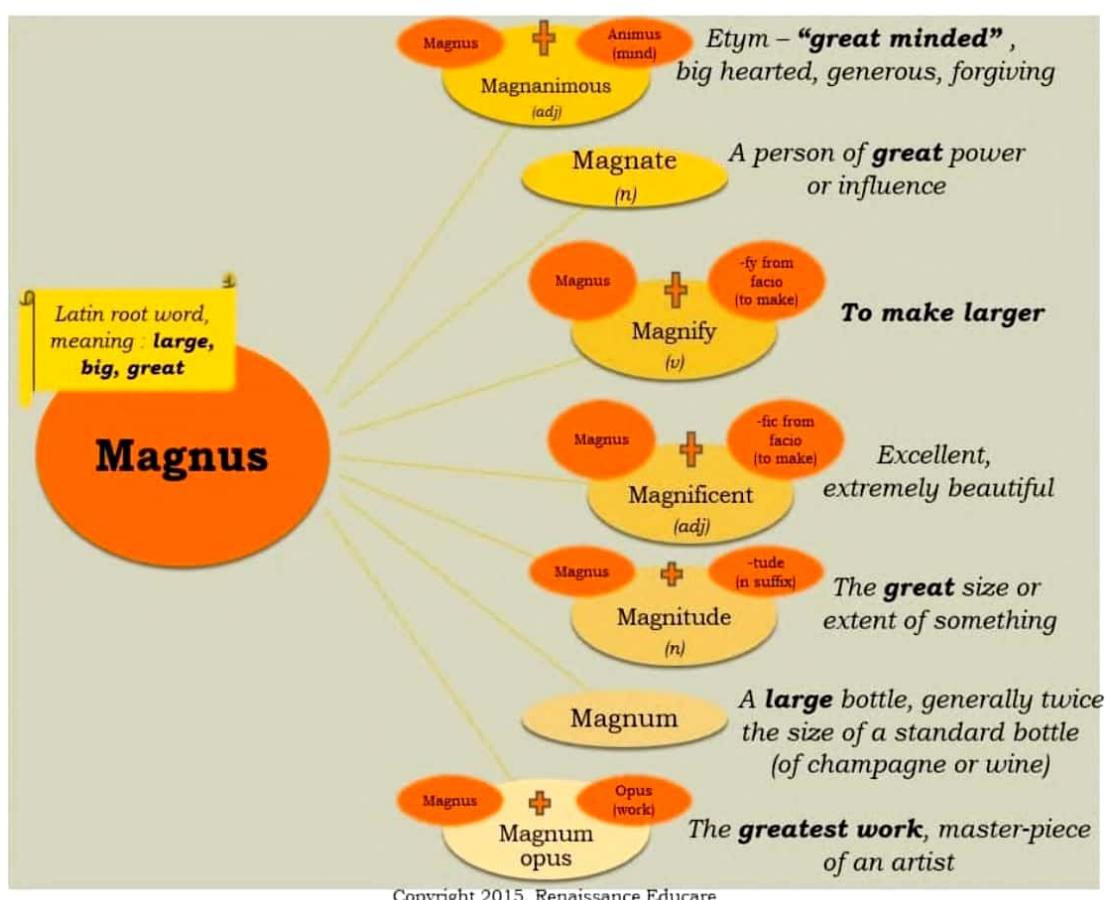

- Talks a great deal; talkative

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Banal

Completely lacking in originality and imagination.

Banal

- Completely lacking in originality and imagination
- Boring; Trite; Hackneyed

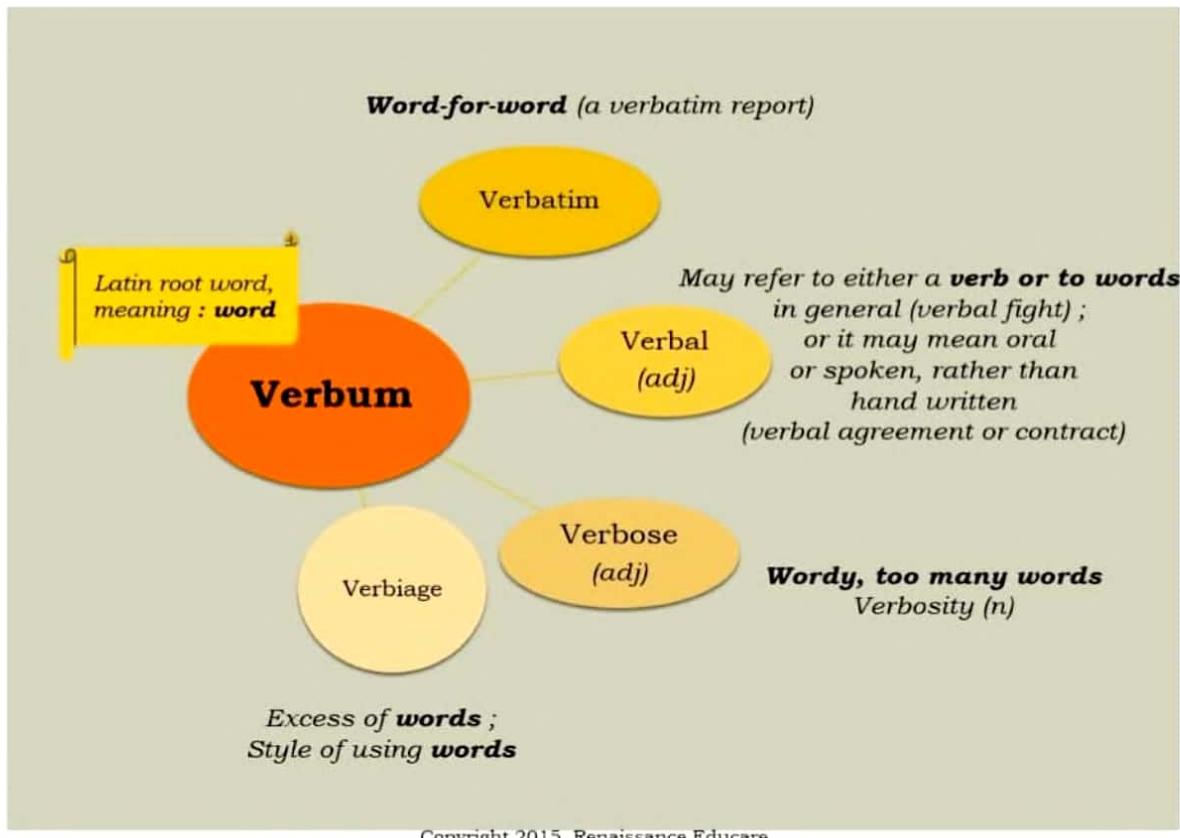

Verbose

Talk, talk and talk !
Using far more words than necessary

Verbose

- Talk talk talk ! Write write write !
- Using far more words than necessary

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Voluble

Rapid and fluent talkers

Co]

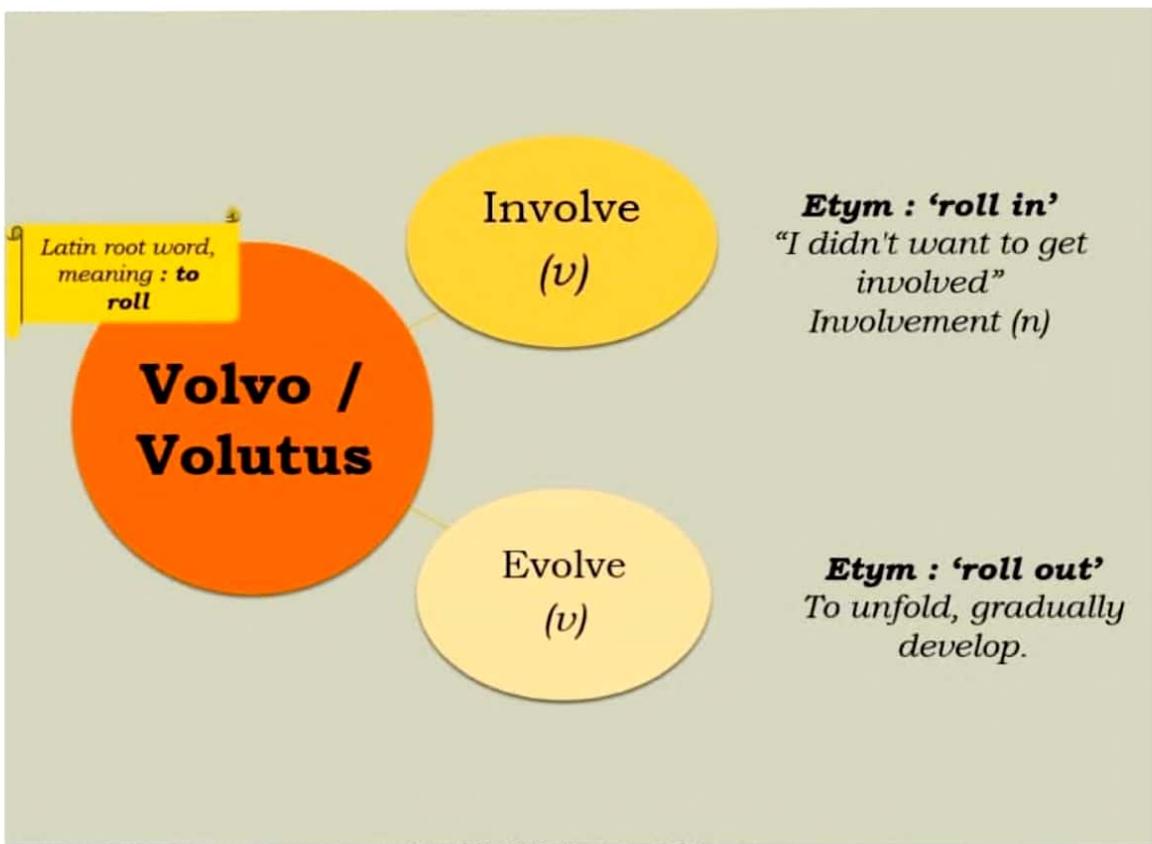

Volute

- Rapid and fluent talkers but lacking depth

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

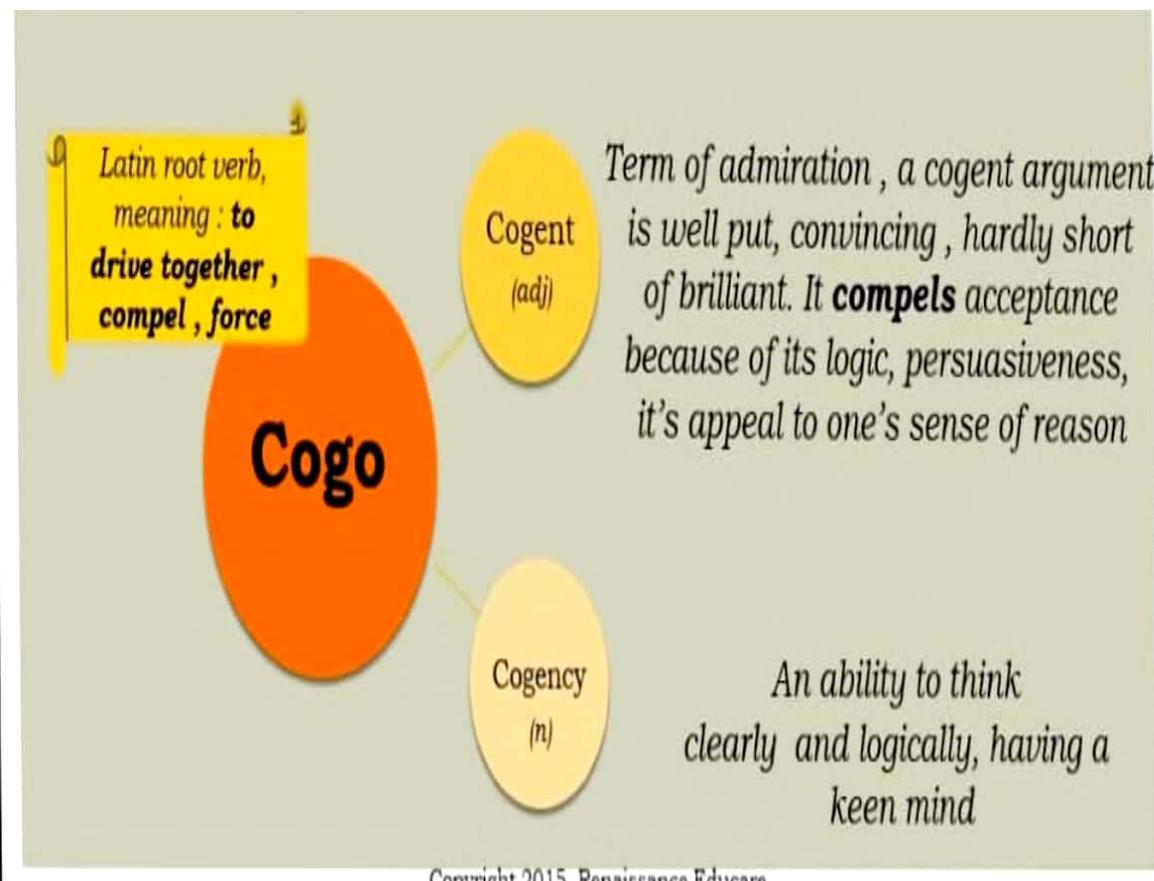

Cogent

Express their ideas persuasively, forcefully and brilliantly

Cogent

- Express their ideas persuasively, forcefully and brilliantly

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

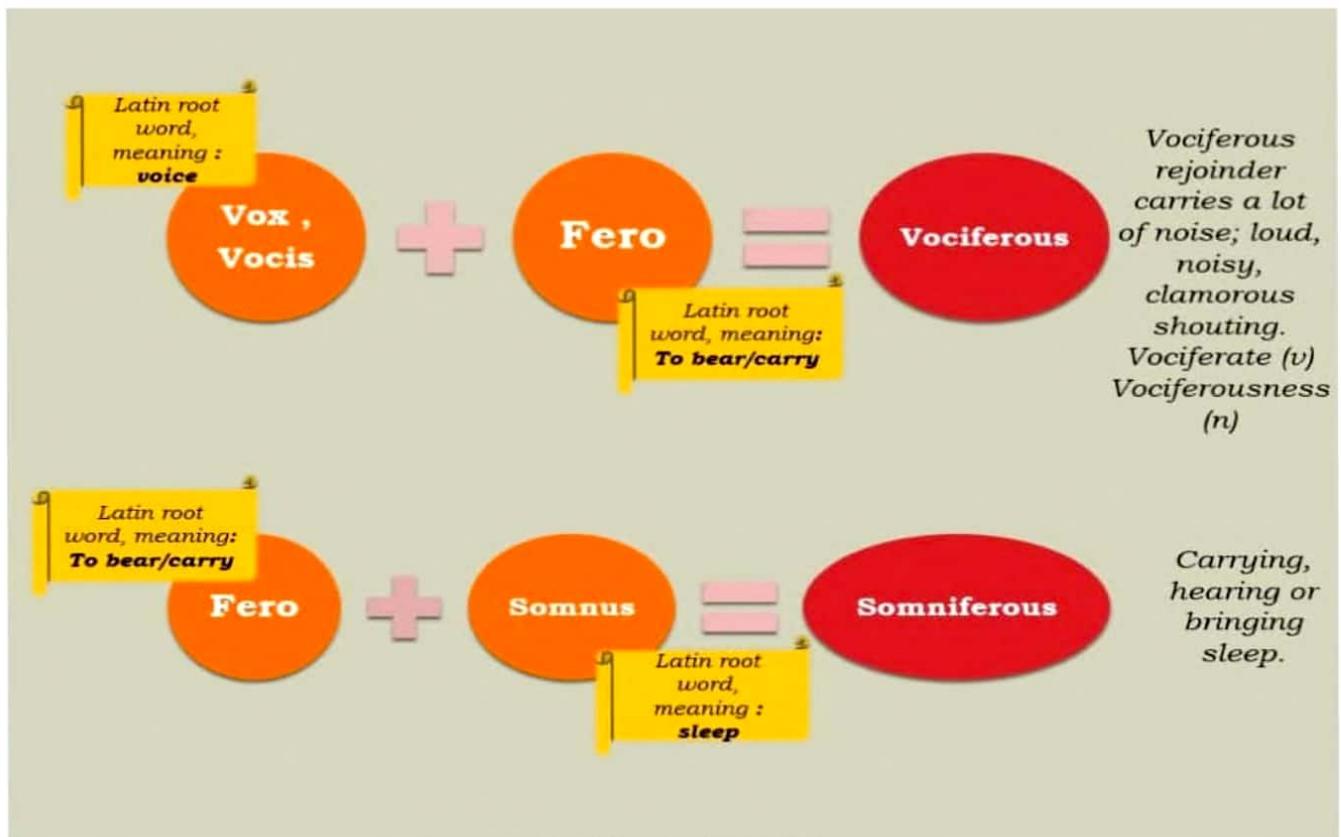

Vociferous

Talk is loud, noisy, forceful

Vociferous

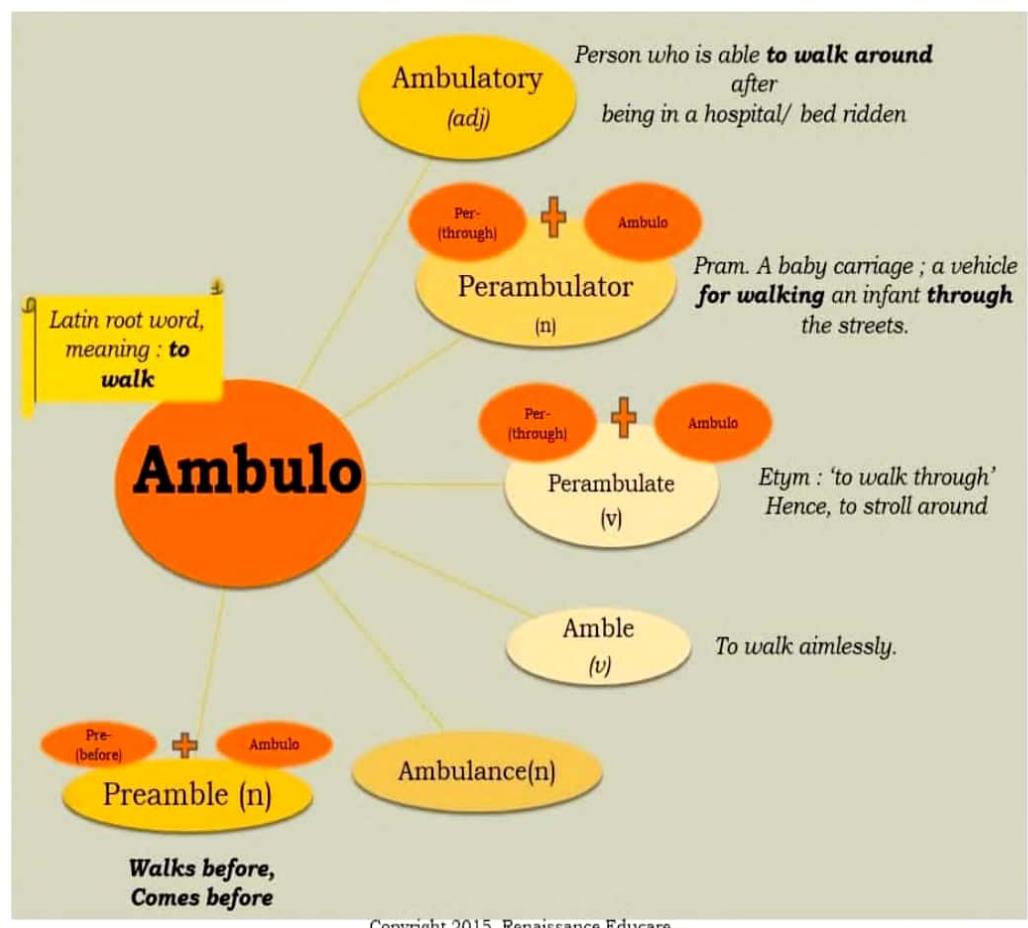

- Talk is loud, noisy, forceful

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

Copyright 2015. Renaissance Educare

TYPES OF PEOPLE YOU MIGHT FIND YOURSELF IN CONVERSATION WITH

Let us examine 10 such types (one of which by chance be your very own)

Taciturn

Laconic

Inarticulate

Garrulous

Banal

Verbose

Voluble

Cogent

Vociferous

Loquacious